APPRECIATION

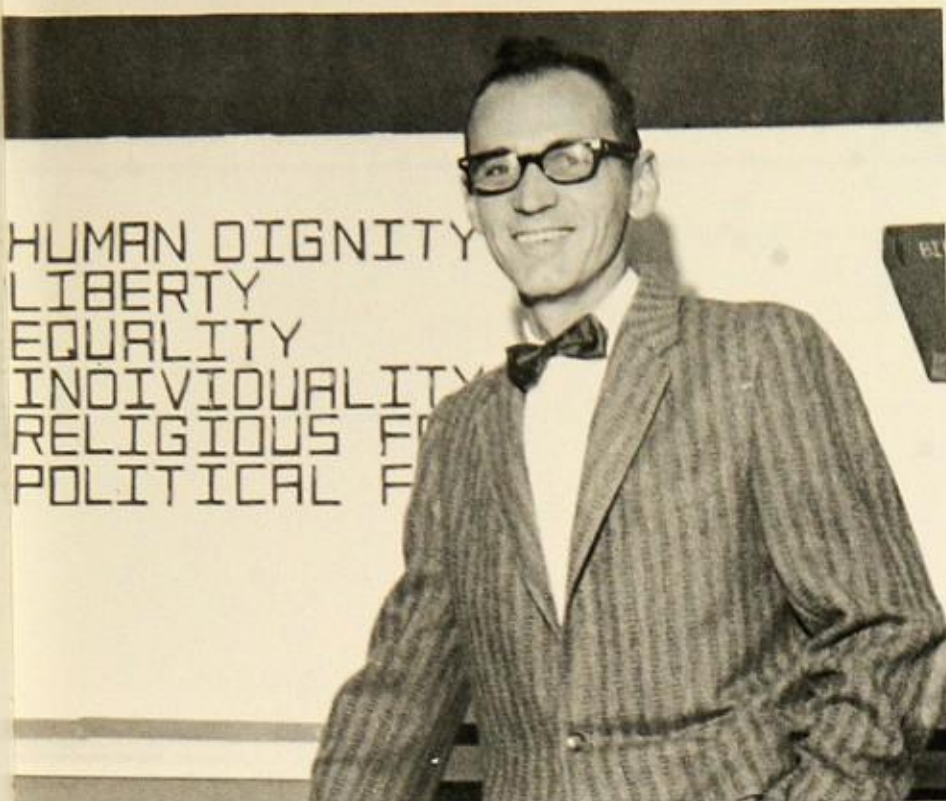

MR. EDWARD GAFFNEY

A primary factor in the success of any play or prom is the scenery used in the creation of an illusion and mood. Mr. Gaffney, who has contributed both time and effort in this purpose, has also rendered various services to the Class as a whole and to the members individually. We Seniors, fortunate to have had you actively supporting our Class, wish to thank you for your cooperation.

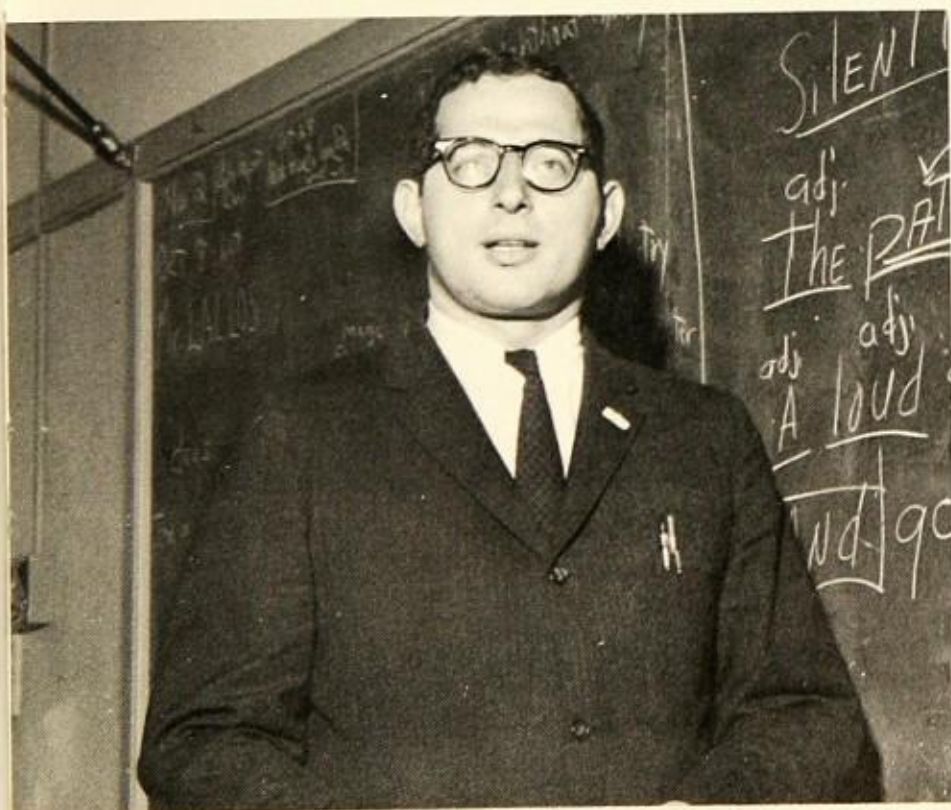

MR. RAYMOND JOYAL

We, the Class of 1963, would like to express our appreciation for your valuable assistance as advisor of our yearbook. Long hours of organization, preparation, and revision, with your able assistance has produced the 1963 Chronicle, our final endeavor as a Class.

MR. PHILLIP GOODROW
MR. MICHAEL PATKOSKE

Under the joint supervision of Mr. Goodrow and Mr. Patkoske, our Junior Play was successfully produced. The play, our first project as a class, demanded from both of you long hours in rehearsals, an unlimited source of patience, and a sense of humor blended with firm discipline. We are grateful for your fine direction and guidance.

MR. GEORGE LALLOS

Our Senior Play, containing all the excitement and difficulties of the Junior Play, was launched under the able direction of Mr. George Lалlos. The Class of 1963 greatly appreciates your assistance in molding the play into a noteworthy accomplishment of our class.

CLASS POEM

We lie in a watery grave.
The world is blurred and Distorted.
We don't have to look and we do
Not see.
We can reach out and touch the sides of our existence . . .

Immaturity

The current is swift, we are Forced to the surface.
The world is bright and clear.
There is physical repulsion, we
Recoil in fear.
And cry . . .

Challenge

The water is a raging stream.
We are claimed by the Undertow,
And dragged to the bottom.
The Ocean is salty,
It is brackish; Our tears
Are Bitter . . .

Defeat

We damn the core of our being.
We scream
In anger.
The water is dark and chaotic.
Our voices are hollow, there is Pain.
We are hoarse and weak and tired.
Life is Nothing . . .

Rebellion

Suddenly there is
Quiet and peace.
The body gathers strength.
The Ocean is flooded by the light
From a candle.
The storm is calmed.
The crisis is Over . . .

Hope

We are walking on the beach.
The water sucks at the
Footprints in the sand.
The soul surges
Within us.
*Oh world, world, I cannot get thee
Close enough!*
Our hearts are swollen with joy,
We are born
Anew . . .

Maturity

Paula Marafino

Dear Seniors:

Time has passed quickly for most of us during the past four years at Southington High School. Now the decision to choose our life vocation has become very prominent in our thinking.

The degree of success which we may attain in our chosen profession is dependent primarily upon the thoroughness of our training. I hope we have had an adequate preparation upon which to build our careers and our success.

As your first and last Class President, I have honestly tried to lead you as well as possible. I proudly extend my congratulations to every member of the graduating class and wish every one success and happiness in future years.

May God continue to bless you and bestow happiness upon you.

Sincerely,

Andrew LaPorta

ALMA MATER

"Rugged mountains 'round about us
Rise to greet our happy throng
As we set the echoes ringing
With your joyous triumph song.

All our hearts in Southington High School
All our cheers are for the blue
Loyalty shall be the watchword
Of our band so staunch and true."

"Happy are the days we spend here,
As we upward, onward move.
May our heart's devotion never
Faithless or disloyal prove.

And when time shall make us workers
In the world of might and right,
May our love for Southington High School
Keep our banner's honor bright."

Marie, Best of luck
to a real friend.
I hope you enjoy your next two years at S.H.S. Have fun!
You, in all you do and May God Bless
Never forget De Angelo.

THE YEARS PASSED

FLASH

Now that Senior Year is swiftly drawing to a close, let's take a moment or two and pause to recall the highlights of the past four years.

FRESH FROSH

We, the Class of 1963, began our Freshman Year thoroughly familiar with the building and well-versed in school regulations having been the last group to attend the high school as eighth graders. Unfortunately, we were also well known and easily recognized by the Seniors, a prominent disadvantage at initiation time! Sore knees from kneeling and tired arms from carrying tons of books were constant companions in those early days of high school.

Under the leadership of Andrew LaPorta (Pres.), Loretta DePaolo (Vice-Pres.), Alberta DeLuco (Sect.), and Marcia Masthay (Treas.), we entered the social life of Southington High School on December 12, 1959 with a dance called "Mistletoe Hop." The Annual Magazine Drive offered us an opportunity to display our spirit which we quickly did by snatching first place.

With success in our pocket, our Freshman Year perfected the techniques of operating as a unified class.

SUCCESSFUL SOPHS

Sophomore Year was ushered in by the election of class officers. Joan Hobson (Pres.), Loretta DePaolo (Vice-Pres.), Alberta DeLuco (Sect.), and Marcia Masthay (Treas.), were selected to guide future activities. The Executive Board was also chosen with Janet Corbin presiding as chairman.

On January 7, 1961, we greeted the new year with "The Hoppin' New Year Hop." The All-Star Basketball Game was sponsored jointly by the Class of 1963 and by the Southington Police Benevolent Association. The Magazine Drive again challenged, and we again claimed first place. At the Magazine Drive Jamboree, our skit, representing a beatnik version of our recent accomplishment, earned thirty dollars for our treasury by placing first.

Attention was next focused on the selection of the cheerleading squad for the coming year.

BACK

The Sophomore girls who were chosen were Marcia Masthay, Lynne Podolak, Joan Frisina, Miriam Landino, and Barbara Fogg. Viola Seilonen and Cathy Klopfenstein were participants in All State.

Our Sophomore Year closed on a note of high spirit and anticipation for the year ahead.

UNITED JUNIORS

Our Junior Year brought new class officers. Bill Bushnell as President, Loretta DePaolo as Vice-President, Alberta DeLuco as Secretary, and Alan Holmquist as Treasurer assumed leading positions in the various activities throughout the year.

The spotlight of the social year centered on the Junion Prom. The gymnasium was mystically transformed in accordance with the theme "Bali Hai." Co-chairmen of the event held on November 18, 1961 were Bill Bushnell and Cathy Conway. Wendy Darling and Gary Hurlbert reigned as queen and king over the island paradise. The flavor added to this memorable occasion was supplied by Bobby Kaye and his Orchestra.

The excitement and magic of the prom was followed on February 2, 1962 by a light comedy, "Meet Me At The Prom," produced by the Junior Class. An opportunity for members of the class to display their dramatic talent was offered by this play. Janet Corbin and Alan DeBisschop headed the list of the cast in the production. Marcia Masthay and Roger Binkerd served as co-chairmen for this event.

In the Magazine Drive, we slipped to second place. Viola Seilonen won first place in the annual Junior Recital for her monologue of a beautician. First prize for the S.H.S. Talent Show was Cathy Klopfenstein. Other participants in the Show from the Junior Class were Henry Cichowski, Barbara Fogg, Jim Houle, and Paula Marafino.

During the course of normal class activities, three styles of class rings were displayed for consideration. The results of voting determined our Class rings to consist of a raised "S" centered on a round stone.

Delegates to Laurel Girls' State and Nutmeg Boys' State were Cathy Conway, Janet Corbin, Viola Seilonen, Bob Bafuma, Jeffrey Darling, and Savin Ungaro. Participants in All State from the Junior Class were Viola Seilonen, Jeff Darling, and Bob Staniewicz. Janet Corbin was chosen from among ten other candidates to reign as queen over the activities of Southington High's Homecoming. Arlene Bouchard and Alberta DeLuco served in the court of the queen. Co-captains for the cheerleading squad for the coming year were Miriam Landino and Lynn Podolak. The April induction of the National Honor Society resulted in the selection of twenty-one Juniors. Members are chosen on the basis of Scholarship, Leadership, Character, and Service.

Plans for Senior Year prompted the election of Arlene Bouchard and Bob Bafuma as co-editors for our yearbook, the Chronicle. Lynne Podolak was elected as chairman of the Executive Board. The election of officers for the Student Council brought a whirl of speeches, posters, and significant bells on the voting machines. The participation of a large percentage of the student body in the voting chose Roger Binkerd as President, Janet Corbin as Vice-president, Alberta DeLuco as Secretary and Savin Ungaro as Treasurer.

A successful year of activity and accomplishment was completed. The long-awaited Senior Year was in reach.

ACCOMPLISHED SENIORS

Senior Year officially opened with the election of class officers. Chosen were Andy LaPorta (Pres.), Janet Corbin (Vice-pres.), Alberta DeLuco (Sect.), and Tim Pye (Treas.). First place in the Emblem sponsored Talent Show was awarded to the Senior Class. Chairman of Show was Paula Marafino, editor-in-chief of the Emblem. We retained second place in the Magazine Drive.

The Chairman of Homecoming festivities, held on October 20, 1962, were Janet Corbin and Andy LaPorta. Senior candidates for Homecoming Queen were Arlene Bouchard, Alberta DeLuco, Loretta DePaolo, Marcia Masthay, and Lynne Podolak.

Viola Seilonen and Jeff Darling were selected to participate in All State. Joan Hobson, received the D.A.R. Award, and Lynne Podolak was chosen for the Betty Crocker Homemaker Award.

On December 1, 1962, the Senior Class presented the riotous comedy "Come Out Of Your Coma." Chris Majka and Robert Smedley were co-chairmen for the production, while Sheila Cyr and Alan Holmquist headed for the talented cast.

The highlight of the winter season at S.H.S. was the Christmas Ball, "Fantasy in Frost," held on December 22, 1962. Music and the seasonal setting mingled with holiday laughter comprised a lighthearted atmosphere.

The Valentine Dance sponsored by the Senior Class took place on February 16, 1963. The king and queen for "Cupid's Holiday" was determined by a Sweet-heart campaign. Votes for the ten candidates were in the form of pennies, the total of which was donated to the Music Club. Maryanne DellaVeechia and Bill Bushnell made arrangements for the dance. Rodney Greaves was crowned king, and Noreen Rich, a Sophomore, was honored as queen.

On May 11, 1963, a night of beauty and fantasy was weaved in the setting of "Oriental Gardens," theme of the Senior Prom. Marcia Masthay and Roger Binkerd were co-chairmen of our memorable prom.

Holiday Hill received the spirited Seniors on May 29. Arrangements were made by Joan Hobson and Tim Pye. Alberta DeLuco and Frank Guildner formulated plans for Class Night held at the Waverly Inn on June 6, 1963. Fun was the order of the evening! A showcase for the display of trophies was given to the school by the Senior Class.

The somber tones of graduation on June 23, 1963 climaxed a period of four worthwhile years for an accomplished and well-prepared group of individuals.

Time and space prohibit the inclusion of all the special moments that occur in four years. Our Class has had its share of awards, set-backs, pranks, praise, gum-chewers, term papers, insect collections, parties, despair, and sadness. Personal memories tucked into these years are also a part of a Class History — of your Class History. Our history does not end here. Graduation approaches, and each individual will then record his own.

"VARIETY IS THE SPICE OF LIFE"

The Emblem, put out by a group of hard working reporters, writers, artists, and its production staff, has been a great asset to Southington High School this past year. Not only does the Emblem provide students with reading material about their school, but it also sponsors other projects. The Emblem, along with the Student Council, sponsored the annual Talent Show. A new look this year was the balloting for a Valentine king and queen by the use of pennies. Our school paper helped to promote this project and encourage all students to take part.

GRIDIRON GREATS

Once again Southington High School produced a powerful football team. The Knights rolled over their opponents and compiled an eight and one record. The only loss came at the hands of a strong Middletown eleven.

Head Coach Joseph Orsene, his competent staff and all the players must be congratulated on their fine showing. For the thirteenth consecutive year the Knights defeated our arch rival Plainville by a score of 44-6. The team deserves a lot of credit for the hard work and sportsmanship shown throughout the season.

For the last three years the team has taken second place in the C.V.L. Meet.

BASKETBALL

It was a long winter for the Knight hoopsters this year. Southington became Class A this season and the ball club played many tough teams. The Knights hustled but were outplayed by their taller sharpshooting opponents. The team never gave up and the highlights of the season were two dramatic wins over league champion Newington. Southington was the only one to defeat Newington in league competition this year. A lot of credit goes to Coaches Walter Lozoski and John Fontana for the fine job and never ending encouragement they gave the team. The boys finished the season with a thrilling victory over Berlin High in the annual sweater game.
